Description

I'm at home and i can access freely

https://infra-gateway.d4science.org
https://infra-gateway1.d4science.org

That are below the ha-proxy. This was allowed before only from my IP in the office and should have remained as is. Sth must have slipped out in the configuration.

Yes, my fault. It's related to #6232, I don't have managed to find the time to investigate the cluster issue yet.

We have the firewall cluster issue since about 2 years now, but we never had this issue before (AFAIK), can't you close the direct access to the 2 nodes in the meantime?

Yes, it was always that way. I've also found an error in the rules files, so that it was impossible for the rules to be loaded.

Done. It could also be a permanent solution, if we do not find a way to make the liferay cluster work.
