We have huge problems to add certificates in the d4science.org domain where other certificates are already present. Is performfish.d4science.net an option? If not, we could try a wildcard certificate (we could be forced to switch to a different letsencrypt client). That is going to take a few days, starting from the next tuesday.

#2 - May 23, 2018 11:59 AM - Massimiliano Assante

can you take the place of edison.d4science.org? we don't need that anymore. And no, performfish.d4science.net is not an option for this case.

#3 - May 23, 2018 12:07 PM - Andrea Dell'Amico

Unfortunately not, it does not work that way.

I was sure that I already opened a ticket to explore the wildcards option, but it seems I'm wrong.

I just added the hostname. The certificate will have to wait.

How long we still have to wait? We need this soon @andrea.dellamico@isti.cnr.it

We are still unable to obtain a valid certificate. As soon as it will possible, the wildcard certificate will be deployed on the load balancer.

The PerformFISH Gateway is ready, https://performfish.d4science.org however we are still waiting for the SSL Certificate to be validated, untile then we cannot disclose it.

#10 - Jul 06, 2018 05:25 PM - Andrea Dell'Amico

I'm still waiting for at least a day without the embargo. I cannot foresee it, I don't know how many certifcates are going to be renewed in the next days. I only have a list of the certificates emitted until yesterday, here: https://crt.sh/?q=%.d4science.org

Hi all, people of PerformFish are pushing to have the portal available with the SSL certificate. When can we make it available?

#12 - Jul 10, 2018 05:05 PM - Andrea Dell'Amico

As we are not able to obtain a certificate under the d4science.org domain, has just been decided to use the performfish.d4science.net name.

#13 - Jul 10, 2018 05:11 PM - Massimiliano Assante

@andrea.dellamico@isti.cnr.it please let us know when the certificate for https://performfish.d4science.net/ is ready

#14 - Jul 10, 2018 05:49 PM - Andrea Dell'Amico

The certificate is ready and installed.
