Description When replying to a post a. the reply is "long" (occupy a number of rows greater than 3); b. the action is done in the user home (that collecting all the posts across VREs) ... the box for entering the comment enlarges and covers the "Comment" button. I'm experiencing this by using Safari.

Please, make a try with the services.d4science.org ... there is something weird ... I do not manage to reproduce in via the iMarine portal.

#4 - Nov 18, 2015 04:53 PM - Massimiliano Assante

ok, i did manage to reproduce only in the services home page. it is something related to the services home portal theme, as I cannot manage to reproduce in the VREs.
