Why the new VOs were enabled on development portal monitor? They are production VOs and as such they should be on the official infrastructure monitor.

Enabling theme in production would have required to restart the production portals, moreover at the time I performed the change they were not completely working, not sure now.

From monitor, I'm not able to add any kind of resource from `/d4science.research-infrastructures.eu` to `/d4science.research-infrastructures.eu/SmartArea`.
I don't see any scopes in the panel.

In addition I don't have access to `next.d4science.org` as life user and to `dev3.d4science.org` as life user. Why?

Could anyone give me access to this VM: "next.d4science.org", please? @tommaso.piccioli@isti.cnr.it @andrea.dellamico@isti.cnr.it it is weird, next.d4science.org is an alias for dev3.d4science.org

you need to be logged out to see the scope otherwise it shows the current scope where you are logged into, not a new thing

I don't know :). dev3 is an installation that predates my arrival here, btw.
I gave you access as root.
