node7.d.d4science.research-infrastructures.eu is running ubuntu 12.04 so we cannot just install java 8: we need Ubuntu 14.04.

The VM is also running the dev tabulardata service and database.

The databases should be moved to postgresql-srv-dev.d4science.org, and the auth and tabulardata dev services split on different servers.

Can we update the Ubuntu version?

@roberto.cirillo@isti.cnr.it, are you going to perform these activities?

We can create two new VMs, one for tabulardata and one for the auth service.

I agree. I think this is the best solution

I spoke to @lucio.lelii@isti.cnr.it that agrees too. He's asking to maintain node7.d.d4science.research-infrastructures.eu to not force an immediate reconfiguration of all the authorization clients in dev.

We can keep that hostname as an alias of the new authorization VM, and remove it when all the clients will be reconfigured.

I've created 3 subtasks for this purpose and a common sprint called "Dismiss node7.d.d4science.research-infrastructures.eu"

#15 - May 18, 2017 10:21 AM - Roberto Cirillo

- Parent task deleted (#8380)

For performing the java8 tests I've created two new tickets for both services hosted on node7.p:

#8660

#8675

I'm going to detach this ticket from sprint "gCube Infra to Java8"

- Target version changed from gCube Infra to Java8 to Dismiss node7.d.d4science.research-infrastructures.eu
